RULES GOVERNING PRISONERS.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE.

WASHINGTON, D. C. JULY 12, 1904.

4722 The following rules and regulations for the government and discipline of the prisoners in the United States Penitentiary, at Leavenworth, Kansas, are hereby promulgated, in accordance with section 4 of an Act of Congress approved March 3, 1891, and the Warden of the said Penitentiary is hereby ordered to see that the said rules and regulations are enforced, these rules superseding all rules and regulations previously promulgated.

W. H. MOODY,

ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

1. Obey the orders of officers and directions of foremen without reply or argument. When orders of officers and others conflict, obey the officer.

2. Be quiet everywhere and at all times.

3. You must not talk or communicate in any manner with any other prisoner while marching or standing in line, while at meals (except by such signs as make your wants known to the waiter), while in the chapel or at work, except when given permission by an officer or guard. You must not talk to any free person unless by permission and in the presence of an officer. You must not talk to any officer on subjects not concerning your duty or conduct as a prisoner. Insolence, profanity or obscenity will not be tolerated.

4. You may talk to your cell mate, if you have one, but in LOW TONES only. Do not talk or call to men in other cells. Do not whistle, sing or make any unnecessary noise.

5. Keep your person, clothes, bedding, cell and library books clean. You must not draw, paint, or hang pictures on the walls of your cell, nor in any way mark or deface library books, buildings, walls, furniture or fittings.

6. You must not alter or deface your clothing in any way, and must not cut your shoes. If your clothing or shoes do not fit, or need repair, report at once to your officer, who will take the necessary steps to remedy the matter.

7. You must wear your outer shirt, and are not allowed to work in your undershirt unless by special permission of the Warden or Deputy Warden while tending boilers, furnaces, etc.

8. When leaving or entering your cell, open and close the door without slamming. Stand at the cell door whenever required for count.

9. Do not go to bed in the day time except by permission and on account of sickness. Do not go to bed with your clothing on. Keep your shoes off the bed.

10. On returning to the cell house go into your own cell. If found in the wrong cell you will be punished. You must not stop on the range to look into another prisoner's cell, or pass any article into a cell or from one cell to another. You must not use your mirror to watch officers on the range. All these offenses will be severely punished.

11. You must not have on your person or in your cell, any money, jewelry, postage stamps or valuables; nor stationery, except that furnished you on writing day. All of your business must be done through the Warden's office. Pencil and paper will be furnished you on writing day for which your writing ticket will be taken up; the ticket being returned when the paper and pencil are taken up. Letter paper when not used for a letter must be returned.

12. You must not, at any time, have any tools or weapons in your cell, nor concealed in your clothing, or on your person. Tinkering in your cell is expressly forbidden.

13. You must not, at any time, have a knife on your person, or in your cell, unless you have written permission from the Warden or Deputy Warden. Any knife found in your clothing, or concealed upon your person, or in your cell, will be held as evidence of your intention to injure some one, and you will be dealt with accordingly.

14. You must not carry a lead pencil or blank paper upon your person, or into your cell, without written permission of the Warden or Deputy Warden. If it is necessary for you to use a pencil at your work, it must be left in the custody of your foreman or officer. Materials from the shop must not be taken into your cell.

15. Whenever you have any necessary communication to make, or a request to present to the Warden or Deputy Warden, inform your officer, who will make out for you a written request for audience or letter, or will state your business in writing and forward it through proper channels to the person you wish to address. On matters of minor importance notify your officer of your desire to speak to the Deputy Warden when he next visits your place of work, stating why you wish to speak to him. Do not step out of line to speak to the Warden or Deputy Warden.

16. When marching in line keep your head erect and your face turned toward the front. You must not leave the line, or change places in the line, without permission of the officer in charge. In marching into your shop, or to your place of work, keep your place in line till the officer commands the line to break.

17. You must not leave your place of work except by permission of the officer in charge.

18. Careless or willful injury of your work or tools will be promptly reported and punished.

19. You must not communicate with other prisoners while at work, except when absolutely necessary, and then, only by special permission of the officer in charge.

20. Whenever you leave your cell for work, school or chapel, and whenever you leave your shop or place of work, see that your clothing is in order and your shirt properly fastened at the neckband. No ribbons, badges, or decorations, except the badge of the Volunteer Prisoners' League, will be allowed on your clothing. Put your cap or hat on properly, and keep your hands out of your pockets. Avoid all insolence or rowdiness in walk, manner or gestures.

21. You will be promptly reported and punished if you, unnecessarily, jostle or brush against another prisoner, with the intention of annoying him, or in any way provoke another prisoner to anger. Making faces or insulting gestures will not be tolerated. Any trick by which another prisoner is led into violation of the rules and loss of time, will lead its author into punishment and reduction of grade.

22. You must approach an officer or guard in a respectful manner, taking off your cap, or touching the cap if out of doors, before speaking to him. Use the officer's last name always with the title "Mr." and with no other title. In addressing an officer, if you do not know his name, say, "Sir," and proceed with your communication.

23. If addressed by your first or given name, by an officer or foreman, you must answer or respond. Undue familiarity between officers and prisoners, will not be tolerated. Any attempt at familiarity on your part with an officer, guard or foreman, will be punished. You must not place your hand upon an officer, guard or foreman, or touch his clothing, or in any way get into close contact with him.

24. In speaking to an officer or guard stand at two paces distance, and speak distinctly; it is not necessary to breathe into an officer's face to make him hear you. Do not pass closely in front of an officer or guard, or between two officers or guards who are conversing, and do not interrupt an officer or guard unless you are a messenger charged by another officer or guard with urgent and important business.

25. You must not receive anything whatsoever from any citizen or person not connected with this Penitentiary in an official capacity without written permission of the Warden. You must make no present whatsoever, to any officer, guard, foreman or employee of the Penitentiary, nor buy or receive anything from or for such person, nor ask any such person to buy or receive anything from or for you. You must not ask any officer, guard, foreman or employee, or any citizen to write or mail a letter for you without special written permission from the Warden or Deputy Warden. You must not have your mail addressed to you in care of any officer, guard, foreman or employee, but solely in care of the Warden. You must not make or repair anything for any officer, guard, foreman or employee unless written permission is first obtained from the Warden or Deputy Warden.

26. On entering the cell house, dining room, chapel or any of the offices of the Penitentiary, you must uncover, unless your duties are such that you have special permission to remain covered.

27. When the bell rings in the morning rise promptly, make up your bed as instructed, clean your cuspidor and sweep your cell. Then wash your face and hands and at the command of the guard, pass into the corridor, marching by column of twos in perfect order. If sick notify the officer who unlocks the range. Do not remain in your cell without permission.

28. At the 9 P. M., signal go to bed at once, placing your shoes at the cell door, and the rest of your clothing where it can be plainly seen.

29. You must not chew tobacco while marching in line or while in the dining room. You must not spit upon sidewalks, cell house or corridor floors or upon dining room floor. Cuspidors will be provided and must be used. When you go to sick call be sure that your mouth has been rinsed out and that no tobacco stains are on lips or tongue. You must not use or have tobacco while in the hospital or sick cell.

30. You are permitted to have in your cell the following articles: One Bible, 1 cup, 1 mirror, 1 cuspidor, 1 towel, 1 piece of hard soap, 1 comb, 1 hair brush, blankets, sheets, pillow cases, night shirt, mattress, bedstead, campstool, 1 table, 1 water jar with cover, 1 electric light, 1 small library shelf, 1 library catalogue, 1 book of rules and such school and library books and family photographs as your conduct and grade privileges permit.

31. On entering the dining hall take your seat promptly—position erect—arms folded, with eyes to the front until the signal is given to commence eating.

32. Strict silence must be observed during the meal. Staring at visitors, talking and laughing, fooling or gazing about the room are strictly forbidden.

33. Eating or drinking before or after the bell sounds, using vinegar in your drinking water, or putting meat on the table are prohibited.

34. Should you desire additional food make your wants known to the waiters in the following manner:

If you want bread, hold up your right hand.

Coffee or water, hold up your cup.

Meat, hold up your fork.

Soup, hold up your spoon.

Vegetables, hold up your knife.

If you desire to speak to an officer about food or service in the dining hall hold up your left hand.

35. Wasting food in any form will not be tolerated. You must not ask for or allow the waiter to place more food upon your plate than you can eat. When through with meal leave pieces of bread on left side of plate. Crusts and small pieces of bread must not be left on your plate.

36. After finishing your meal place knife, fork and spoon on right side of plate. Sit erect with arms folded. When the signal is given to arise, drop hands to your side. At the second signal march out and to your place in line in a prompt, quiet and orderly manner.

37. On entering the cell house at any time, go to your cell quietly and promptly, close the door after you without slamming and hold it until it is locked. Then stand at "attention" until the count is completed. When the count is completed you will be notified by the sound of the bell.

38. When at work give your undivided attention to it. Gazing at visitors, or at other prisoners will not be allowed. You must respectfully listen to and faithfully carry out all instructions given you by your foreman concerning your work.

39. In talking with your foreman confine yourself strictly to the work in hand. If you have any cause for complaint of your guard, foreman, or others, you will be allowed to send application for an interview with the Warden or Deputy Warden, through your officer at any time.

40. If you are sick or unable to work report the fact to the officer in charge and act as he may direct. If you wish to see the Physician, give your name and number to the officer immediately after entering the dining room in the morning.

41. All trading, bartering, or selling, of whatsoever kind, between prisoners, or between prisoners and officers, guards, foremen, employees or citizens is strictly prohibited.

42. Make it your business to keep your cell clean and free from vermin. Make careful inspection of your bedding every day. If any bugs are found report the fact immediately to your guard.

43. At morning sick call, stand quietly in the line until your number is called, then pass quickly into the Physician's office, receive and promptly obey his directions, and again take your place in line. No conversation or disorder of any kind will be permitted.

44. If ordered by the Physician to the hospital for treatment you will be properly cared for, but to hold your place in the hospital you must remain quiet and perfectly obedient. No disorder of any character will be tolerated. While in the hospital you must be neat and tidy in habits and perfectly respectful in language to the hospital officers and nurses.

45. Neither food nor medicines can be sent to any prisoner by private individuals outside the Penitentiary.

46. The "good time" law is printed in full on page 10 of this book. For violation of these rules you may lose part or all of this "good time." A record of all violations of these rules is kept in the Warden's office.

47. When in the yard or in the cell corridors not at work, if approached by the Warden or Deputy Warden or by a guard in company of visitors, you must stand at "attention," with arms folded, until they have passed.

48. Your cell is subject to search at any time. If articles are found that might be used to injure or destroy cells you will be dealt with as "attempting to escape."

49. You are not compelled to attend Chapel Services, but because the moral support of religious instruction is necessary for all, you will be expected to do so, unless satisfactory reasons exist for not doing so.

Privileges

On entering the Penitentiary you will receive three tickets entitling you to the following privileges as long as you obey strictly all the rules:

FIRST—One ration of chewing tobacco each week. Smoking is absolutely prohibited.

SECOND—Permission to write once in two weeks.

THIRD—Permission to see friends once in four weeks, except on Sundays and Holidays.

NEWSPAPERS—You are permitted to receive such newspapers, magazines, books, etc., as the Warden may approve. No sporting or sensational papers of any description will be admitted.

PHOTOGRAPHS, Etc.—Family photographs, plain towels, comb, brush, tooth powder or soap, tooth brush, small hand mirror, suspenders and plain white handkerchiefs, will be admitted during good conduct. NO Eatables—except what you can eat during interviews with friends—NO LIQUIDS, TOBACCO OR CIGARS will be admitted, nor any articles except those mentioned above.

EXTRA LETTERS—Written permission must be obtained from the Warden or Deputy Warden in case it becomes necessary to write special letters.

THE "GOOD TIME" LAW.

[PUBLIC—No. 170]

An Act to regulate commutation for good conduct for United States prisoners.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

That each prisoner who has been or shall hereafter be convicted of any offense against the law of the United States, and is confined, in execution of the judgment or sentence upon any such conviction, in any United States penitentiary or jail, or in any penitentiary, prison, or jail of any State or Territory, for a definite term, other than for life, whose record of conduct shows that he has faithfully observed all the rules and has not been subject to punishment, shall be entitled to a deduction from the term of his sentence to be estimated as follows, commencing on the first day of his arrival at the penitentiary, prison, or jail: Upon a sentence of not less than six months nor more than one year, five days for each month; upon a sentence of more than one year and less than three years, six days for each month; upon a sentence not less than three years and less than five years, seven days for each month; upon a sentence of not less than five years and less than ten years, eight days for each month; upon a sentence of ten years or more, ten days for each month. When a prisoner has two or more sentences the aggregate of his several sentences shall be the basis upon which his deduction shall be estimated.

SEC. 2. That in the case of convicts in any United States penitentiary, the Attorney-General shall have the power to restore to any such convict who has heretofore or may hereafter forfeit any good time by violating any existing law or prison regulation such portion of lost good time as may be proper, in his judgment, upon recommendations and evidence submitted to him by the warden in charge. Restoration, in the case of United States convicts confined in State and Territorial institutions, shall be regulated in accordance with the rules governing such institutions, respectively.

SEC. 3. That this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after thirty days from the date of its approval, and shall apply only to sentences imposed by courts subsequent to the time that this act takes effect, as hereinbefore provided. Prisoners serving under any sentence imposed prior to such time shall be entitled and receive the commutation heretofore allowed under existing laws. Such existing laws are hereby repealed as to all sentences imposed subsequent to the time when this Act takes effect.

Approved, June 21, 1902.

RULES GOVERNING THE USE OF THE PRISON LIBRARY.

1. The Chaplain is, ex officio, librarian, and will have charge of the library. All applications for books must be made to him.

2. All prisoners who can read will be entitled to the use of the library, under such restrictions as may be found in the rules following.

3. Books will be issued to prisoners only on Thursdays and Fridays of each week, unless otherwise ordered.

4. Any book taken out of the library by a prisoner can be kept only two weeks. But if the reading of a book shall not have been finished at the end of two weeks, the librarian may re-issue it.

5. Any prisoner who is convicted of marking, or willfully tearing or destroying a library book will be denied the use of the library, or otherwise punished as the Warden may direct.

6. When a prisoner is on the discharge list, his book and card must be returned to the library in good condition, one day before he goes out.

7. No book will be issued to any prisoner who fails to return his library card with the book to be exchanged.

8. If library cards are defaced by erasures, no more books will be issued to the owner of such card except by permission of the Warden.

9. But one book at a time can be drawn, and when a book is drawn, it cannot be returned until next book day, except in case of discharge.

10. Prisoners are not permitted to exchange or loan books, and if detected doing so, their cards must be taken up.

11. All books will be inspected when issued and when returned, and all damage noted must be reported at once to the Warden's Office, together with the number of the prisoner drawing the book.

12. Read and return the book with card in as good order as you receive them.

13. Errors, arising from issuing books, must be reported in writing to the librarian by the officer in charge of class when complaint is made.

14. Officers and employees may make use of books in the library under the same rules as to the time books may be kept out as apply to prisoners.

R. W. McCLAUGHERY,

WARDEN.
